Faith in Action: May Crowning

All students were invited to lay a flower on the altar for Mary. Fr. Lawrence blessed the altar and 8th graders led a decade of the rosary over livestream for the school.

Students celebrated their First Communion last Saturday. It's great to be apart of a community with such key faith formation events for students. See some pictures on the next pages from our Band Concerts & our Art Show. Choir concert is tonight!

Film Shoots

This week, we welcomed two different film crews. The first crew was shooting a promotional video on Catholic Schools. Due to the unique nature and excellence of our campus, our school was chosen out of all the schools in the diocese!

The second film shoot was an NBA commercial that paid us significant money that we can now use towards scholarships and the general fund.

We recognize traffic might have been a little bit extra heavy - so thanks for your patience on Monday & Tuesday.

A few other pictures

Third grade teacher, Ms. Squiller completes a marathon! Way to set a goal and accomplish it Ms. Squiller.

The Art Show is a success! Parents and families toured the great work of our students grades K-12. Thanks Ms. Banham for making it happen.

The Band Concerts were a success! Congratulations to all of our musicians in grades 4-12.

Students also completed Science Projects this week. Students learned how to produce electricity from lemons, how plants grow and got to observe the life cycle of a butterfly.
